

Environmental Ethics and Land Management

ENVR E-120

<http://courses.dce.harvard.edu/~envre120>

Public Lands: Mining, Timber & Grazing Lands

Timothy C. Weiskel

Co-Director, The Climate Talks Project

Session 6 – Part 2
27 October 2005

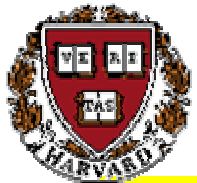

Harvard University Extension School
Fall Semester 2005

Population Change 1990-2000

Atlanta has experienced “white flight,” as the more affluent leave the “core” and move to the sprawling “periphery.”

•
•
•

Detroit also provides a classic case study of sprawl and its link to racism....

Consider the two broad aspects of sprawl together:

1) the expansion outward from the city center to “new” and “virgin” housing tracts and

2) the disinvestment in the city center left behind.

EDEA - MassGIS 2000

0 0.062 mi

Environmental Ethics and Land Management

ENVR E-120

<http://courses.dce.harvard.edu/~envre120>

Public Lands: Mining, Timber & Grazing Lands

Timothy C. Weiskel

Co-Director, The Climate Talks Project

Session 6
27 October 2005

Harvard University Extension School
Fall Semester 2005

