

greenpeace

How a Group of Ecologists, Journalists and Visionaries Changed the World

A public discussion with Rex Weyler, co-founder Greenpeace International and author of the newly released Greenpeace: How a Group of Ecologists, Journalists and Visionaries Changed the World

Thursday, December 2 7 pm – 8pm
book signing to follow

Wiener Auditorium
Kennedy School of Government
Taubman Building, Ground Level

Rex Weyler, one of the co-founders of Greenpeace International, will speak and present his new book. His presentation ties the history of Greenpeace into citizen action today, the importance of creative citizen action, eternal vigilance, and the fact that all social progress - civil rights, women's rights, peace, ecology - has historically started with private citizens making a stand.

“A rousing tale of the buccaneers and idealists who conspired to save the world by bringing democracy to the high seas.” - Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

Presented by

Harvard Business School
social enterprise club