

Since "Higher Education Can Kill by Degrees," This is Not a Customary Yale

Diploma

Rather, It Is a Public Declaration that We Do Hereby Witness and Affirm That

William Sloane Coffin, Jr.

Has Earned the Highest Degree of Enduring Esteem in Our Hearts As

Permanent Chaplain of the Class of 1968

For His Sterling Memorial Sense of Humor, His Unparalleled Generosity During His Years on Wall Street, His Unstinting Love Toward the Poor Little Lambs Who Have Gone Astray, And His Unflinching Public Declaration of Moral Principles in Human Affairs.

William H. Baker
Reunion Chairman, Yale Class of 1968

James R. Latimer, III
Secretary, Yale Class of 1968

May 31, 2003
